

Women in Energy Executive Breakfast

It's time to boost morale and recreate a high-performing team

Date: May 24, 2017

Registration: 7:00 a.m. - 7:30 a.m.

Panel Discussion: 7:30 a.m. - 8:30 a.m.

Panelists:

Sandy Asch
Global Consultant,
Bestselling Author

Sandy Asch, Principal Alliance for Organizational Excellence LLC, bestselling author of ROAR: How to Build a Resilient Organization the World Famous San Diego Zoo Way, internationally recognized speaker, global consultant, best place to work expert and architect of the Resilience at Work™ model.

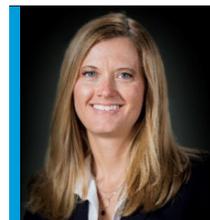

Asch partners with companies globally to create workplaces that are passionate, focused, healthier and resilient. 30,000 leaders in 350+ companies in 50 countries and 6 languages have implemented her strategies to win best place to work awards, navigate mergers and embrace change

In partnership with Sandy Asch and Alliance for Organizational Excellence LLC:

- A defense contractor won the grand prize for workplace excellence by demonstrating an 18% increase in revenue, 78% improvement in profitability, 60% reduction in turnover and 14% improvement in quality in only 24 months.
- A global oil and gas company successfully navigated a merger and acquisition by establishing a consistent culture and expectations. In 2014, the Latin America division recorded its highest growth in history despite plummeting oil prices.
- The “world famous” San Diego Zoo won multiple workplace excellence awards including Healthiest Company of the Year, demonstrating a 10% increase in employee engagement and customer satisfaction and 23% increase in revenue.

Sandy's presentations are uniquely high-content and high-participation, engaging CEO, HR and leadership audiences around the world in practical discussions, interactive applications and creative exploration to ensure immediate and meaningful application. She holds a masters degree in Organizational Management and has taught graduate classes in Management, Organizational Behavior and Human Resources.

kpmg.com/socialmedia

Deanna L. Jones
Vice President of Human Resources and Administrative Services
Marathon Oil
Corporation

Deanna L. Jones is Vice President of Human Resources and Administrative Services for Marathon Oil Corporation. Prior to that, from 2008 until 2010, she served as Human Resource director, Reservoir Production Group of Schlumberger. Between 2006 and 2008, Ms. Jones held the position of vice president, North America for Schlumberger Information Solutions, and in that role, was responsible for leading software, information and the company's related infrastructure organization in the U.S.

From 2003 to 2006, she served as vice president of Personnel for Schlumberger Information Solutions, and was responsible for leading all human resource related activities for Schlumberger's world-wide workforce from its London office. During the period 1993 to 2003, she worked in a variety of managerial assignments of increasing responsibility for Schlumberger in Canada and the U.S.

Ms. Jones holds a Bachelor of Commerce Degree from the University of Calgary, Canada; and has completed executive business courses in human resources at the University of Michigan and in finance at the IMD Business School in Lausanne, Switzerland. Ms. Jones serves on the board of directors of Communities in Schools of Houston.

Laura Schilling
President
Pumpco Services Inc.

Laura Schilling is President of Pumpco Services Inc, a Superior Energy Services company. Pumpco is a leading provider of pressure pumping services for the oil and gas industry, focusing on key US resource plays.

Previously she spent fourteen years at Halliburton primarily in Completions and Production. In her most recent role she led global commercial strategy for Halliburton Production Solutions which delivers customized well intervention services across 20 countries. Her prior roles included Global Account Manager for Shell focused on unconventional and deep water projects; and District Manager in the Denver-Julesburg (DJ) Basin in Colorado leading operations for hydraulic fracturing, cementing, completion tools, coiled tubing and wireline services. Laura also held various global leadership roles in product commercialization, Integrated Project Management and investor relations.

In 2016, she was named one of the “Women to Watch in Energy” by Houston Business Journal. Laura holds a bachelor's degree of science from the University of Houston and a Masters of Business Administration from Rice University. As part of her passion for serving veterans and women in the Houston community, she actively supports the Mission of Yahweh, Rice Veterans in Business and the Yellow Ribbon Fund. She is a native Houstonian and lives with Chris, her husband of seventeen years, and their three-year-old son, David.

Moderator:

Kim Kesler
Partner
KPMG LLP (U.S.)

Kim is an audit partner in KPMG's Dallas Energy and Chemical practice. She has more than 17 years of experience providing financial statement audit and audit of internal control services.

Kim Kesler has provided professional audit services to a wide range of companies including large multinational and middle-market domestic companies in accordance with Public Company Accounting Oversight Board requirements and U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. Her audit experience ranges from Security Exchange Commission (SEC) filings and carve-out financial statements to the successful coordination of large global audit transitions. She has a thorough understanding of SEC rules and regulations and has been involved in numerous debt and equity offerings. Kim serves as the energy and chemicals audit practice lead for the Dallas office.